350,256!

Pre-eminently America's FOREMOST Newspaper. ALLE VIELLE HE LE L'ELTETTE LE TENENE PENENE LE L'ELTE L'ELTE L'ELTE L'ELTE L'ELTE L'ELTE L'ELTE L'ELTE L'ELTE

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1889.

PRICE ONE CENT.

RUMORED ARRESTS

In Connection with the Murder of Dr. P. H. Cronin.

A Confederate of Horse-Thief Woodruff Said to Be in Custody.

More Apprehensions May Follow To-Day, but the Police Won't Tell.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD ! CHICAGO, May 23. - Among the first reports of this morning, in connection with the Dr Cronin murder, was that of an arrest which the police were said to have made. The prisoner was reported to be a confederate of the horse-thief Woodruff whose remarkable story of the trunk and the dead girl 'Allie" attracted attention a short time ago.

cause of the doctor's disappearance. In addition to this rumor has, it that Woodruff is now believed to be implicated in the doctor's murder, and that his trunk story, concocted to shield himself, may yet be turned against him.

and seemed to furnish a fair cine as to the

It is said that other arrests are to follow. but the police will give no information, and nothing definite can be learned from any nothing definite can be learned from any source.

The sewer catch-basin in which the doctor's body was discovered is on the Evanston road, at the corner of Fifty-ninth street, a mile from the spot where the mysterious trunk and its bloody contents were found shortly after Cronin's disappearance.

About the body were bits of cotton which corresponded in quality to that found in the trunk, and this is regarded as evidence that it was the doctor's remains which were taken out of the city in their receptacle.

It is not thought that the murdered man was thrown at once into the sewer, though how any further operations could have been carried on without detection after the trunk affair is another mystery.

The catch-basin which held the body is two blocks from the point where the general searching of basins, under direction of the Lakeview authorities, was ended.

Bo posit be have been the several identifications of the body found that no doubt of its being Dr. Cronin's can be entertained.

Equally positive are the evidences upon the wounded head that the doctor was foully dealt with.

The fact that the Catholic charm, called the

The fact that the Catholic charm, called the Agnus Dei, which the doctor always were suspended from his neck, was left untouched by the murderers is regarded as a significant Now that the body is found and so much of the myster" surrounding Cronin's disappearance is settled, theorizers are at work harder than ever in accounting for the murder.

The belief that the crime was the outcome of a conspiracy is general. Whether the conspiracy was that of individuals or of cr-ganizations is a question upon which theorists

Certainly, however, there must have been

Certainly, however, there must have been numbers engaged in the scheme, and it must have been carefully planned.

There are many new converts to-day to the idea broached at the time of the reported presence of Dr. Cronin in Toronto, and of the publication of alleged interviews with him there, that these reports were gotten up as side issues to detract attention from what might transpire here, and to assist in the division of theories and the confusion of clues.

BOSSED BY BOODLERISM.

Monstrous Abuses in the Illinois Insun-Asylum Due to Politica. ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD,

CHICAGO, May 22.—In the State Insane Asy lum investigation to-day the testimony of Dr. Clevenger, a former attaché, went to show that the institution was grossly mismanaged, being controlled largely by politics and boodlerism. Brawls, drunkenness, blasphemy, blackmailing, bluster, intrigues, immorality and wholesale stealing have marked the management for years In 1884 filth and vermin abounded, and often rats would mutilate the bodies of those who had rats would mutilate the bodies of those who had died unattended during the night. Boodlerism prevented investigations. The place was run by politics, and it made a show of external cleanliness, the whitewashing, the flowers and the well-kept lawn constituting the place a whitened sepulchre.

PRILADELIPHIA May 22.—On the affidavit of George W. Symonds, the reporter of the Inguirer who secured admission to the insance department of the Philadelphia Hospital, warrants were issued for the arrest of Keepers Joseph Marshall, Joseph Devlin and Joseph Williamson, charging them with assault and battery upon numerous patients of the institution. The prosecution is in the hands of the District-Attorney.

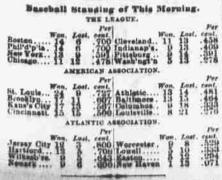

John Cusick, living at Sixty-fourth street and the Boulevard, last evening observed a man named John Murphy insulting young girls pass ing along the Boulevard. Cusick expostulated with Murphy and a quarrel enaued, during which Murphy drew a knile and stabbed Cusick in the abdomen, inflicting wounds which may prove fatal. Murphy was arrested and locked up in the Forty-seventh street station-house, and Cusick was taken to the Roosevelt Hospital.

NATIONAL LEAGUE. Chicago at New York. Cleveland at Philadelphia. Indianapolis at Boston. Pittsburg at Washington. AMERICAN ABSOCIATION.

Brooklyn at Kansas City. Baltimore at Louisville. Columbus at Cincinnati. Athletics at St. Louis.

ATLANTIC ASSOCIATION.

Jersey City at New Haven. Newark at Hartford. Wilkesbarre at Worcester. Easton at Lowell.

A TRAPEZE PERFORMER SAW HER WEEP-ING ON THE FERRY-BOAT.

It now seems almost certain that Miss Tobin was on Staten Island two weeks after April 15, the date on which she was supposed to have disappeared, and in the light of certain evidence given to the police by Harry Leclair, the trapeze performer, it would appear that Miss Tobir committed suicide by jumping from a Staten Island ferry-boat. Mr. Leelair says that he was crossing to New York on the night of Friday, May 3. He stood on the forward deck, and after the boat had left the slip he noticed a young woman answering the description of Miss Tobin standing on the

the description of Miss Tobin standing on the port side, leaning against the rail.

The girl seemed to be in troublet she was crying and rubb dher eyes with her handkerchief. He wasked to the other side of the beat, threw away his eigar and turned around quickly. The woman was gone.

His back was only turned a minute, and the woman did not have time to go inside the cabin. He did not pay much attention to the matter at the time, as his mind was occupied with family troubles.

troubles.

He will tell his story before the Coroner at the reaumption of the inquest.

Coroner Wood, of Port Richmond, says that the girl was not drowned, and bases his assertion on the report of the doctors that no water was found in the girl's stomach.

He wants to testify, but Coroner Hughes has refused to allow him to do so. He may be called when the inquest is resumed on Monday.

HOW FORTUNE'S FAVORS FALL.

Lucky Helrs by Whom Vast Estates Will Be Enjoyed. ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD.

St. Paul., Minn., May 22.-John Wilkin Lowry, of this city, has fallen heir to £10,000 per annum and a large estate by the death of relatives in Cumberland, England. A few days ago, while reading an English paper, he ran across an advertisement asking the whereabouts of the next of kin to John Lowry, and stating that the estate would be thrown into the Court of Chancery unless claim was made prior to May 21. Lowry at once cabled to a firm of attorneys, telling them to stay proceedings until he can establish his claim.

"Jack" Lowry got rid of his private fortune Then he sailed away and has been 'roughing it' ever since. He did not know until quite recently that the relatives whose claims preceded his were all dead.

"Of course," he says. "I expect to have trouble in establishing my claim, but I think I shall be successful. I have not kept up a regular correspondence, and my whereabouts was unknown until recently except by a few people in England."

anown until recently except by a few people in England."

SCRANTON, Pa., May 22.—George Simpson, an Archibald coal operator, who died six years ago, unmarrisd, left his property, which is worth about half a million dollars, to be divided among his brothers and sisters and their children. In July, 1888, Attorney Charles A. McCarty, of Honeadale, received a letter from Mrs. Halph Potter, of Madison, Wis., laving claim to a portion of the Simpson estate as a niece of the deceased. The executors of the estate contested the claim on the ground that the claimant is the daughter of a natural child of George Simpson's father. The case will come up to-morrow before Auditor Strong and will hinge mainly on the disputed validity of an alleged marriage contract in Scotland. It is conceded that no formal ceremony took place.

in Scotland. It is conceded that no formal cetemony took place.

MONTREAL, May 22.—Oscar Martel, the well-known Montreal artist, received a letter yester-day from Cannes, France, informing him that his step-langhter. Dame Hortense Leduc, has become 1. dress to 5,000,000 francs through the death of Mr. Hedell, a millionaire. The fortunate heiress, who was bo 1 in Montreal, is well known in musical and social circles here, expecially since her marriage with Mr. F. Jehin Prume, from whom she has since been divored. In Europe Dame Leduc formed the acquaintance of Hedell, who took her under his special care, and finally bequeathing to her the bulk of his fortune. It was on account of Hedell's friendship for her that Mr. Prume secured a divorce.

Escape of Nine Greek Immigrants.

PHILADELPRIA. May 22.—Nine Greeks who were detained on the American line steamship Ohio under the Contract Labor law and whose return was ordered by Collector Cadwalader, are said to have escaped from the vessel last night. The vessel sailed to-day without them. Three night inspectors on guard on the steam-Three night inspectors on guard on the steam-ship and Surveyor of the Port Campbell declare that they escaped, and a vigorous but unavail-ing search has been made for them to-day. Collector Cadwalader, on the other hand, said to-night that the Greeks were permitted to land on a special order from the Treasury Depart-ment. If such is the case the order was ex-cuted without the knowledge of the inspectors or those in charge of the vassel or wharves. These were the first immigrants whose return was ordered from this port under the Contract Labor law. The Greeks were imported by a New York sponge importer. York sponge importer.

Amateur Buseball Notes.

Laffins, 13; Annex, 12. Essex, 2; Sundowns, 1. Somersets, 13; Starins, 2 Vogel Brethers, 30; Vinet, 15. Fulton Markets, 37; Charter Oaks, 17. Jackson Juniors, 24; Monroe Juniors, 7. St. Peter's Lycoum, 24; Charter Oaks, 6. Fabian Union, 13; Young Men's Circle, 12.

Louis Auerbach, 8; Branch D, New York Four good players wanted. J. Hirshfield, 403 East Eighty-sixth street. The Young Worlds will play nines under four-teen years. J. Schlafer, 383 East Fourth street. The Little Rocks will play nines under four-teen years of age. G. Sullivan, 52 First street.

Fulton Market Juniors, vs. Catherine Market uniors, Sunday, May 26. The Unions will play clubs under twelve years. B. Wilson, 15 Madison street. The Standards want a game next Sunday, J. lenschel, 235 East One Hundred and Twen-

The Quicksteps will play clubs under fifteen years. Il. Alty, 155 Grand street. The Flyaways will play clubs under sixteen years, the Hones preferred. J. J. McGlynn, 509 East Fifteenth street. Emmets, D; Mortons, O. Clubs under seven-teen years challenged. L. Rooney, 117 Fulton

The Carlstadt Juniors will play with uniformed clubs averaging from seventeen to twenty years. H. Dechert, Carlstadt, N. J. Keenes, of Staten Island, 26; Domestics, of Holoken, 6. Other clubs challenged. J. Mc-Guire, Castleton Corners, 8. I.

Comrades, 7; Nameless, 1. Clubs under fif-teen years challenged. D. Cople, 26 Forty-first street, Brooklyn. Street, Brooklyn.

The Nassau Juniors will play clubs under fifteen years. Pitcher and catcher wanted. J. Heffernan, fr., 561 Court street, Brooklyn.

Three good players wishing to join a nine under fourteen years address J. Thompson, 334 Pearl street.

Pearl street.

Young Hessians, 14; Washington Grays, 8. Clubs under fifteen years challenged. J. F. Leen, 107 Harrison street, Brooklyn.

White Stars, 18; Fleetwoods, 4. Second game—White Stars, 19; Fleetwood, 17. Clubs under nineteen years challenged. G. Ellis, 54 Elevanth street. South Brooklyn.

The Amphions challenge clubs under sixteen years, the Kings County, of Brooklyn, preferred. Open for two games on Memorial Day. G. Hyatt, 21 Park Bow, room $2.

The Jackson Athletic Club will play uniformed

The Jackson Athletic Club will play uniformed pines from seventeen to nineteen years of age for Sunday and holiday games only. W. D. Stears, 231 Greene avenue, Brooklyn.

LIGHT ON THE TOBIN CASE. IT IS ALL FOR ITALY.

The Visit of Humbert and Crispi to the German Emperor.

No Ill Will to France Actuates Them in Their Course.

The Maintenance of a United Country Their Dearest Hope and Desire-

INY CARLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. 1 LONDON, May 23. - The visit of King Humbert to Berlin has caused much ill-feeling in France and embittered her relations with

The failure of the French Embassy at Ber. lin to decorate yesterday and the absence of the French Ambassedor from the state banquet are significant illustrations of the jealousy, not to say hostility, with which the festivities at Berlin are regarded. A letter from a Roman correspondent in a position to know something of the foreign policy of the Italian Government, makes the following explanation and defense of Italy's following explanation and defense of Italy's attitude towards Germany:

The visit of the King to Berlin in return for the visit made him by the Emperor William last year stirs up public opinion in France, owing to the misrepresentations and exaggerations of the French press, which refuses to present it in its true light as an act in conformity with the rules of royal etiquette.

Sig. Crispi, who accompanies His Majesty, is not a Frenchman. He is an Italian who has devoted his whole life to securing the independence of his country and the freedom of her people.

Being now at the head of the Government in people.

Being now at the head of the Government, he must follow the policy affording the best guarantees for the future of Italian unity, and act for the sake of Italian interests exclusively.

He can only do so by strengthening the alliance with the central European powers, by which he hopes to insure a united Italy, with Rome for its capital, and makes the fail of the temporal power of the Pope a still more settled question.

temporal power of the Pope astill more settled question.

Thus Sig. Crispi renders a greater service to civilization than he would by committing his country to supporting the claims of France, the result of which might set sell Europe on fire and jeopardize all that Italy has accomplished through so many sacrifices and struggles.

Frenchmen are unwilling to admit that Italian unity depends on the intimate and indissoluble union existing between the Italian nation and the dynasty of Savoy; and that between that royal house and other European thrones there is a link of monarchical responsibility binding each to each and all together.

Italy and France, should they enter into an alliance, would bring down upon themselves not only Germany but all other monarchical powers, and then the Pope would do the rest.

Frenchmen are therefore unjust when they charge Sig. Crispi with ill-will towards them.

As a generous minded man and as an Italian, he is not unmindful of what is due to France, but as a statesman responsible for his country's welfare he must do his duty.

Another man under Sig. Crispi is coming to the front and promises to play a part in Italian politics.

This is Sig. Fortes, Under Secretary of the front and promises to play a part in Italian politics.

This is Sig. Fortes, Under Secretary of State for the Interior.

A democrat by origin, he has remained a democrat. He has made himself thoroughly acquainted with all the details of government. He is a strong and steady-minded man, accomplished, honest and courageous.

Italy looks upon him as one of her dearest hopes, and by associating this rising man with him in the Government, Sig. Crispi has pointed out his political path.

Over a hundred ticket "scalpers" met in convention at the Grand Central Hotel yesterday. Officially the gathering was known as the eleventh annual convention of the American Ticket Brokers' Association, of which H. A. McCrary, neas City, is President. In his a of Kansas City, is President. In his address Mr.
McCrary said a great railroad corporation had by every means in its power tried to have laws passed by the different Legislatures declaring the business of "scalping "illegal, but it had failed.
Since the last convention the business of "scalping" has greatly increased, and the constant increase of offices in cities resulted in a change in the laws of the Assowation and permission to establish branch offices must hereafter be obtained from the Executive Committee.

tee.
The convention will close to-night with a ban-quet.

Mrs. Mary Mietz, wife of August Mietz, an on founder at Nos. 89 Elizabeth and 428 East Sineteenth streets, was out driving in the Park Nineteenth streets, was out driving in the Park and on Lenox avenue yesterday afternoon in an open cerriage. She had started for her home, No. 401 East Seventy-seventh street. When at the corner of Lenox avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street the wheels struck the curbetone and was partially upset. The lady was thrown violently to the pavement and received several serious bruises and internal injuries. She was conveyed to her home in another carriage and Dr. Lange called to attend her.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., May 23 .- At Athalia, Lawrence County. O., Miss Bucker and Miss Bettie Kyle having fallen out concerning a young man, obtained two knives Sunday night and at-tacked each other furiously. Both were soon covered with blood. Finally Miss Rucker gave up the contest and started to run, with Miss Kyle in hot pursuit. The latter soon fell to the ground exhausted.

BRIEF BUT INTERESTING

The man who has succeeded in finding the way to the pocket in one of his wife's dresses hanging on a peg in the wardrobe knows pretty well how C. Columbus telt when he had just discovered America.

A movement is on foot in England to form an Association of Postmasters. The primary idea is to bring pressure to bear on the Postmaster-General with a view to the consideration of certain grievaness under which postmasters are supposed to labor.

The Chancellor of the English Diocese Winchester has given the following opinion as to the use of the burial office at funerals by cremation: "In my view the service may properly be read after cremation, as old Christian services for the dead might be over the ashes of martyrs who had been burned, at the time of burying the ashes, but I think it should not be the prelude to the cremation."

Widow Brown owned a lodging-house in Denwidow Brown owned a longing-house in Denver, Col. A year ago she became infatuated with J. J. Medley, proposed to him and married him. Medley expected to have a comfortable home and an easy life, but his wife a ardor soon cooled and she compelled him to perform all the offices of chambermaid in the hotel. Last week Medley roaked his humiliation in whiskey, bought a revolver and deliberately killed his wife.

While washing the windows of the house in which she was employed, in Pittsburg, Pa. . Mary Tracy was accosted by a strange young man who Tracy was accosted by a strange young man who proposed marriage to her. Their acquaintance progressed until she found him to be shiftless and penniless, whoreupon she dismissed him. The incident preyed upon the girl's mind until she lost her reason and wandered into a church clad only in a nightgown. The shock has demented her aged mother.

KNOCKED OUT IN ONE ROUND. OUT

SHORT BUT DESPERATE BATTLE BETWEEN O'BRIEN AND GRACE.

Jack O'Brien and Jack Grace, two Brooklyn light-weights, fought a short, but desperate mill early this morning, which resulted in a vic-tory for O'Brien, who knocked out Grace in the first round, lasting two minutes and eight sec-

The ring was pitched in rain on the outskirts

The ring was pitched in rain on the outskirts of Long Island City. The match was for a stake of $200 and a purse of $150, subscribed by the forty spectators present.

O'Brien was formerly a pupil of Jack Dempsey, his most notable fight being a thirty-seven-round draw with Jack Dougherty. He is twenty years of age, 5 feet 6 inches tail. He was looked after by Jack Gourly and Charley Conklin.

Grace was seconded by Bill Davis and Johnny Burns. He is twenty-one years old and stands 5 feet 745 inches in height.

Jack Fallon, the Brooklyn strong boy, acted as referee and Charles Kelly looked after the time

time
It was after 2 o'clock when the principals stepped into the ring, O'Brien weighing 120 pounds, while Grace was five pounds over-Grace opened proceedings by sending out his est, but O'Brien stepped aside and the blow was left, but O'Brien stepped aside and the blow was lost.

Before he could recover, O'Brien planted a terrific blow with his left on Grace's mouth, which started the blood. He followed up this advantage by a hard drive in the stomach which almost cloved Grace like a jackshife.

Grace recovered in an instant and fought O'Brien to the ropes, when both clinched. On the breakaway Grace hit O'Brien in the face and played for the body. O'Brien returned the complement and got in on the stomach.

Grace staggered all over the ring, and O'Brien finished him a second later with a terrible whack on the neck, and Grace fell like a log.

He falled to respond at the expiration of the proper time, and the stakes were awarded to O'Brien.

THE NATION'S CASH BOX.

t Will Take Five Months to Count the Vast Amount of Money in It.

[Philadelphia Press, Washinton Letter.]
For the entire $700,000,000 in the vaults the United States Treasurer is responsible, and it must all be counted. The operation of the counting of this vast treasure, which began last Monday morning, will consume about five months. It is all under the charge of a committee composed of two Treasury employees, Chiefs of Division Dascom and Huntingdon, and a personal representative of the Treasurer, George W. Robertson, of Indians, Under the supervision of these three men thirty expert counters are at work every day, six days in every week, for five months. Their fingers must handle every dollar of the

Nothing could be more interesting than to watch the process, and yet it is very simple. To see it the visitor must stand, under a vigilant escort detailed for the purpose, in a railed gallery overlooking a hall. The gallery is much like one of the narrow platforms that circle the walls, half way between floor and ceiling, of one of the great banking houses in any large city. On the floor below is a long row of tables. At every table sit two women, selected for their experiness in counting big piles of crisp greepbacks. Their deft ingers fly to and fro and the Treasury notes rustle soitly and quickly between tens, twenties, hundreds, thousands. The notes which are now being counted are all done up into package is printed the denomination of the notes. It makes no difference to one of the counters whether she is handling a package of $1 notes or of $10,000 notes. The packages are of exactly the same size and contain exactly the same number of notes, and yet what a difference in possible value!

A pickage of 4,000 $1 notes represents a value of just $4,000 Nothing could be more interesting than to value!

A package of 4,000 $1 notes represents a value of just $4,000.
A package of 4,000 $10,000 notes represents a value of just $40,000,000.
But it makes no difference to the girl who counts these 4,000 notes in a package whether their face is stamped with the figure "1" or with the same figure followed by four ciphers. She is a human machine—she is there to count. And she counts the crisp leaves of engraved paper just as she would count the leaves of a book. They are nothing to her. In time—for all these expert counters have had years of experience, and none of them are young or pretty—she has learned to regard the wealth she handles without a quiver of feeling. At the end of every month she receives her stipend. She takes it, and it is hers. She has earned it. The money that has been flowing through her hands at the rate, perhaps, of a fortune a minute, leaves no trace behind. Even if she wished to be dishonest she could not. There is no trust here. Every note that passes into her hands at the beginning of a day's werk must be out of it at the end before she can leave the room where she toils. So perfect is the system that even attempted stealing is practically impossible, while the natural appropriation of the small-cert hit of paper heaving the Government. their face is stamped with the figure toils. So perfect is the system that even attempted stealing is practically impossible, while the natural appropriation of the smallest bit of paper bearing the Government stamp which gives it value is regarded as beyond the reach of design or the realm of chance. With temptations eliminated it is not so difficult to handle millions and be not smitched with a single stain of golden guilt. Notes, however beautifully engraved and printed, do not appeal to the imagination as keenly as heaps of coin. In one single vault in the Treasury are piled 148,214,585 silver dollars. They are deposited there to secure the silver certificates, those pieces of paper, worth nothing in themselves except as they are redeemable for their face value, which circulate all over the country. The vault where this treasure, bigger than the silver hoard of the lucas, is stored is an enormous strong box, wherein several hundred men might move about. It is about 109 feet square and a dozen feet high. Its ceilings, walls and floor are a mass of grante nine test hick, lined with several alternate layers of iron and chiled steel. Many a "crook," in the opinion of the Treasury office as, has made a trip to Washington just for the itching piessure of being within a few yards of this heard. Its chef safety, however, lies not in the box of stone and steel that girdles it. The weight and buck of silver are its protection against theves. These glistening millions are divided into bags, each containing $1,00. Two bags are put into a box, and these boxes are theves. These glistening millions are divided into bags, each containing $1.000. Two bags are put into a box, and these boxes are piled on shelves. Now, one of these boxes weighs 130 pounds. A thief couldn't run very rar with that weight, and his plunder would be small if he could. Of more profit would it be to steal some of the parkages of gold coin which make up the $25,'00,000 deleasted in one compartment of another vault. Twenty thou and dollars in gold weighs but seventy two p unds.

Charged with Shooting a Sailer John Daty, a drunken sailor, who lodges at Page's Hotel in Spring street, was held in Court to-day charged with shooting James Hamiau, a salor of the steamer City of Birmingham, dring a fraces on West street largight. Hamiau was only slightly wounded in

A Legacy for Mr. Paruell. BY CABLE TO THE PRESS . EWS ASSOCIATION. LONDON, May 23. -Eli - Duxbury, a leading sember of the Wesleyan Church and a strong Conservative, who died receptly, has left in her will $10,000 to Mr. Parnell for his private use.

ON REVIEW. THAT "DEEP PLOT."

Park Policemen H ve Their Annual Young Templeman the Only Con-Parade in Central Park.

The Grand Stand Filled with Admiring Inspector Byrnes Has Decided Not to Do Spectators.

Marching to the Inspiring Strains of The Prisoner Arraigned Before Re-Cappa's Band.

The Mail at Central Park presented a scene of unusual life and activity this morning. It was a great day for the "sparrows," as the Park policemen are known among their blue-coated brethren of the municipal force, ing has been deferred to Tuesday next. for it was the occasion of their annual dress parade. The "sparrows" were out in full force, and all wore their new gray uniforms in honor of the day. There were lots of people out to see and applaud them, and the reviewing stand which had been erected near the music stand in the upper end of the Mall was crowded with guests.

Usually the leafy elms of the Park afford s grateful shade to the paraders, but this morning shade wasn't any object. Sunlight would have been welcome, for cold blasts swept down from the north and sent shivers creeping up and down the backs of the spectators who had forgotten their wraps and

The men were under the command of Capt.
Thomas Beaty, who takes great pride in his force, and who, as usual, was fully equal to the occasion.

The e were four companies, which were commanded by Sergts, Lewis Flack, John W. England, James B. Ferris, John B. Mulholland, Michael C. Meany and Hugh Fitzpatrick

Commissioners Towle, Borden and Hutch-ins were also on hand with a host of friends at ins were also on hand with a host of friends at the reviewing stand, and among the other guests were a number of city officials representing many of the Departments, all of whom had received special invitations from the Park Board.

Mayor Grant was expected to review the force, but he did not put in an appearance.

The music for the occasion was furnished by Cappa's military band, which was stationed at the head of the column. There was a display of Park flags and guidons, which were carried by the veterans of the force, and after pa sing in line in front of the reviewing stand, the procession marched up and down the Mall and went through a variety of evolutions with a steadiness that was highly creditable to their discipline and training.

In the procession were:

Roundsmen—E. P. Alsm. M. E. Cunningham, Savinel Collina James E. Dillon, James Dris-

In the procession were:

Roundsmen—E. P. Alsm, M. E. Cunningham.
Sanuel Collins, James P. Dilion, James Driscoll, William P. Egan, Edward H. Hall, W. J.
Morgan, John O'Reefe, I. C. Tyson, Thomas
Wallace and Thomas McAviney.
Policemen—H. H. Andereya, T. H. Armstrong,
J. E. Bagley, F. T. Baldwin, W. C. Bergan, C. E.
Bertram, Fred Bollow, P. J. Boylan, C. C.
Bradley, P. J. Brady, Bernard Bray, James
Brennan, Jeremiah Burke, Charles Buettner,
Oscar Burpean, John Carey, Thomas Carroll,
Peter Coen, C. C. Collins, B. R. Connoily, P.
Couroy, T. P. Corcoran, J. J. Corrigan, W.
Coughlin, J. J. Cray, M. J. Coopton, J. J. Curry,
Charles Cunningham, Thomas Dalton, Owen
Delaney, J. E. Diamond, James Dillon, Isaac
Dobson, John Dolan, Owen Donnelly, J. J.
Doolady, E. J. Dougherty, B. Doyle, C. J.
Drew, W. J. Dunn, Hugh Duuphy, H. J.
Drew, W. J. Dunn, Hugh Duuphy, H. J.
Drew, W. J. Dunn, Hugh Duuphy, H. J.
Lichler, John Fagsn, G. P. Fall, David Fanning, Patrick Fanning, James Farley, Henry
Farrell, John E. Feller, Thomas France,
James E. Fitch, August Fitting, John Fleming,
Stephen Frahm, James Frawley, Thomas Frawley, John T. Gaffney, M. Gilmartin, G. T.
Green, Frank Greppner, George Gregory, John
Hackett, George Hall, G. Hampshire, J.

James E. Fitch. August Fitting. John Fleming. Stephen Frahm. James Frawley. Thomas Frawley. John T. Gafney. M. Gilmartin. G. T. Green, Frank Greppmer, George Gregory. John Hackett. George Hall. G. Hampshive. J. J. Harrigan. J. L. Havey. Day Hardie. Peter Herlich. H. Herlich. R. E. Hewitt. Peter Herlich. H. Herlich. R. E. Hewitt. H. Herlich. R. E. Hewitt. H. Herlich. R. E. Hewitt. George Hall. G. Hampshive. J. J. Harrigan. J. L. Havey. Day Hardie. Peter Herlich. H. Herlich. R. E. Hewitt. H. Horlich. R. E. Hewitt. J. Herlich. R. E. Hewitt. H. Howard. T. H. Howard. T. J. Howard. T. Johnson. A. H. Kassing. J. J. Kavnagh. M. Kelly. J. F. Kirly. A. Klein. J. Kuesagh. J. P. Larkins. P. Linehan. A. Little. J. Livingston. J. P. Lynch. D. Lyous. W. G. Lyons J. McCarthy. T. J. McCarthy. J. McCormick. J. J. McDonald. R. McFarland. J. T. McGowen. J. McGongal. T. McGowen. F. J. McGonigal. T. McGowen. F. Mahon. P. Mann. J. F. Mahoney. P. J. Marcin. P. Mechan. J. Mcraphy. J. Marchy. T. H. Nicholson. P. Murphy. J. Murphy. T. H. Nicholson. P. Mugent. J. D. O'Brien. T. J. O'Conner. W. J. O'Conner. J. O'Conner. W. J. O'Conner. J. O'Donohue. J. J. O'Leavy. N. O'Neil. W. Parker. J. Powers J. P. Purcell. J. J. Quinn. W. J. Reed. F. Reeves. B. Reilly. J. Ryan. J. Robinson. P. F. Rooney. W. Savays. W. Schneider. E. T. Shafer. J. M. Shannon. J. Sheel. M. J. Shee. M. Sheehan. J. W. Shein. J. W. Wilson, C. E. Moore and W. C. Fox.

TWO CHIEFS OF POLICE IN JERSEY. Chief Nathan Is Swern In and Chief Mur-

City pointed at 9.30 this morning when Michael Nathan appeared and asked to be sworn in as

The City Clerk administered the oath and Nathan went to the building occupied by the Board of Public Works and established an office

Board of Public Works and established an office there.

The old Police Board suspended Chief Murphy last night for insubordination and elected Nathan.

The new Police Board last night made several promotions in the force.

The old Board will command Chief Murphy to appear before it next Monday to answer the charges against him.

Chief Murphy will pay no attention to the old Board, but will continue to be Chief of Police under the new Board.

Chief Nathan was reading The World when a reporter called on him at his new office.

'I have issued no order yet, 'said he,' 'and have laid out no programme. I shall not do anything hastily or rashly, but will act deliberately and calmly. In fact, I shall probably do little until there is a decision by the courts.

Mr. Nathan was Chief of Police of Jersey City from 1877 to 1880, when he was removed and Chief Murphy elected. He has also held the office of Water Commissioner in Jersey City and in Berg in before the consolidation.

Pre-dent Davis, of the old Board, said this morning that at the meeting Monday's clerk will be appointed.

Secretary of War Proctor is Mr. Partridge. But for all that he will not qualf in the presence of the enemy. San Francisco Atta : The private secretary of mathematics explain how so many ordinary mortals secomplish the extraordinary feat of walking around a square?

Etta Wheeler Wilcox: A wife, like a kiss, should be asked for with the eyes alone—and then when consent is evident should be taken without unnecessary questions or delay.

spirator Produced as Yet.

Any Railroading. corder Smyth and Remanded

Until Tuesday. "The Evening World" is pleased to ob serve this morning that the effort to "rail rend" Templeman has subsided. His bear-

Tis well.- (ED. EVENING WOBLD.

Frank Templeman, the ex-private detectiv who is now under indictment for an alleged attempt to put up a sort of blackmailing scheme on Inspector Byrnes and District Attorney Fellows, by charging them before the Commissioners of Accounts with being in a "divvy" with Private Detective J. E. Wilkinson, who has a bill of $5,047 against the city, was brought before Recorder Smyth again this morning in General Sessions. Lawver Warner Foster, his counsel, was with him. When Templeman was brought in he appeared as cool and self-possessed as yesterday, but he glanced around the courtroom and at his counsel in a manner that seemed to indicate that he was very mad at seemen to indicate that he was very man as somebody.

Mr. Foster said that he was willing to have the plea of not guilty stand until he had ex-amined the indictments, with the understand-ing that he might demur to them after further ing shat he might demur to them after further examination.

Meanwhile he would be satisfied if the trial was fixed for next Tuesday.

"That is reasonable, is it not, Mr. Fellows?" asked the Recorder.

"Perfectly," responded the District-Attorney, who had shown yesterday so strong a disposition to ratifoad the prisoner without giving him a chance even to get counsel.

It was finally agreed that the prosecution should base its case upon the indictment charging attempted grand larceny, and Lawyer Foster should have till Monday to make his election on the question of a demurrer.

of insanity.

"I have yet had no opportunity of examining my client," he said, "and all I know about him is that he was sometimes employed ining my client," he said, 'and all I know about him is that he was sometimes employed by me to serve papers and subpœnas. I always found him to be perfectly straight.

'He has friends in the South and comes of a good family. I shall know more about him to morrow."

Mr. Foster also intimated that he proposed to show that Templeman was entirely innocent of the charges against him, meaning that he had not tried to get money for the alleged information which he gave to the Commissioners of Accounts, which adds a new phase to the story.

Commissioners Holshan would not say anything more than repeat the story which he had already given of the negotiations of the Board with Templeman, and which he says is all there is in the story.

'I was saitsfied that Templeman was lying when he first came here, and all I did was to lay the trap in which he was caught."

He would say nothing in regard to charges which had been made that the matter had been worked up as a political conspiracy, and seemed perfectly contented to let the affair take its course in the courts.

Very little is known of Templeman's antecedents, and even those in whose employ he has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He has been are ignorant of his past career. He

AN ISLAND FOR SALE.

CANADA—Tenders are invited for the purchass of the island of Anticosti, is the Gulf of Si. Law-rence, comprising about 2,500,000 seres. Particulars and forms of tender may be oblained from Mersta, Saw-ard, Da Costa & Guthrie, 29 Nassan st., New York, and from Burton, Vales, Hart & Burton, 37 Lincoln's lim Fields, London.

This advertisement, which appeared in this morning's papers, would have gladdened the heart of Sancho Panza in his long search for the island which Don Quixote promised him. Anticosti is an i-land lying directly in the mouth of the St. Lawrence. It is about one mouth of the St. Lawrence. It is about one hundred and forty miles long, with an average breadth of twenty-seven and a haif miles, and has a population of 1,000 souls.

The island was granted 250 years ago to a French Canadian by the Crown of France for services rendered to the Government, but after the conquest of Canada by Great Britain it passed into the hands of wealthy families, mostly residing abroad, who until recently retained the proprietorship by succession. It is governed under the laws of Canada. forming a part of the Frovince of Quebec.

A company of Englishmen owns this land, but it has gone into liquidation and wants a purchaser.

Joe Jefferson's Country Homes. Joe Jefferson has one of the most striking claces along the New England coast. It is situated on Buzzard's Bay between New Bedsituated on Buzzard's Bay between New Bedford and Martha's Vineyard. It is a very quiet and retired spot, surrounded by beautiful scenery and in the very centre of the best sea-food gathering grounds in the country. Here the great comedian finds perfect rest during the warm Summer months and enjoyment and entertaining for a troop of friends who then always gather around his beard. He also has a magnificent plantation in Louisiana, but at his home on Buzzard's Bay he may be found during the days when men and women are hunting for comfort and a cool breeze.

2 O'CLOCK.

POISON

Suicide of a Well-Known Produce Dealer in the New Market.

He Shut Himself in His Stand and Took Cyanide of Potassium.

and He Was Embarrassed.

A Note for $3,000 Was Coming Due

William G. Smrth, a well-know produce dealer, who was awarded stands 50 and 52 in the new West Washington Market, was found dead in the loft of one of his stalls at 5.30 this morning. Smith, who was about fifty years of age and was formerly one of the most prosperous tradesmon in the old market, was missed yesterday afternoon when his wife, who is an invalid, residing at 9 Hoboken street, Ho-ouken, began to worry about his absence. When morning came she despatched Henry Dites, a friend of the family, to see what had become of her husband.

Dites went to the stall and found Smith's lifeless body lying face downward on the floor of the loft. In his hand he held a bottle of cyanide of potassium, half emptied. It is supposed that early vesterday morning he shut himself in the loft and took the poison, and that death was almost instantaneous. Smith was a man rated in the trade as worth from $50,000 to $75,000.

The cause of his suicide is said to be partly domestic troubles and partly business Charging attempted grand larceny, and Lawyer Foster should have till Monday to make his election on the question of a demurrer.

Several new facts have developed in the case which have led those who were most interested in it yesterday to take a somewhat modified view of the situation this morning.

Inspector Byrnes does not care to say much in regard to the matter, and declares that he is out of the race, except that he is william to appear as a witness when it comes to trial. He says it is all in the hands of District-Attorney Fellows.

He was at first at a loss to understand why a man in Templeman's position should make such charges, knowing them to be utterly without foundation, unless he had been backed up in some way by those who were, for some reason, unfriendly towards him and wished to injure him.

It is said now that the discovery has been made that Templeman has been a very hard drinker for years, and that his excessive use of I quor has deranged his mind. In fact, it is intimated that he is insane, although he ap, ears to be of sound mind on ordinary occasions.

District-Attorney Fellows himself has nothing to say to-day except that the facts will come out in the trial, nor will Lawyer Foster admit that he intends to offer the please of mannity.

"Thave yet had no opportunity of examination of mannity."

The cause of his suicide is and toubles and partly business and partly business and partly domestic troubles and interested the had he had indorsed a note for $3,005 for the Brooklyn Body were found letters which the hueld have to make that he had indorsed a note for $3,00

THE HOUSATONIC STRUCTURES

NORWALE. Conn., May 23.—Wilson Point, the southern terminus of the Housatonic Railroad, was visited by a disastrous conflagration this morning at 3 o'clock.

While the night force of stevedores was un-loading a freight vessel, a lantern was accidentdly overturned on a bale of jute, which instantly loading a freight vessel, a lantern was accidentally overturned on a bale of jute, which instantly blazed up, and in spite of desperate efforts the freight-house was soon in flames.

The employees had to run for their lives and the fire soon spread to the passenger depot, coaling, freight buildings and, in fact, everything that would burn on the quarter-mile of wharf.

Twenty-seven loaded freight cars were burned, with their contents.

The passenger steamer Cape Charles was moored at the wharf, and narrowly escaped destruction, but her hawsers were cut and she floated off with the tide.

Dozens of other vessels were saved in the same manner.

There are no facilities for extinguishing fres at the point, and a special train was run to Norwalk and a fire engine and two hose companies were loaded on it at 5 o'clock; but the flames were beyond control and everything except the new floating dock, which had never been used, was burned to the water's edge.

The property was owned by the Housatomic Railroad and the New England Terminal Company, and the loss is estimated at about 5:100,000.

This accident, following closely on the Housatonic defeat in the Legislature at Hartford, is a heavy blow to the Company.

ORDERED TO QUIT THE K. OF L.

Pittaburg Carpenters Stirred Up by a Circ cular from the Brotherhood. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENISG WORL PRESENTE TO THE EVENIES WORLD.

PITTERURG, May 23.—A circular of the National Brotherhood of Carpenters, ordering three local unions to withdraw from the Knights of Labor, under penalty of forfeiture of sick and death benefits, has engendered a bitter feeling, and may cause a defection from the Brotherhood of 2,000 Knights.

The men rogard the order as the first step of an open light on the K. of L. by the American Federation of Labor for supremacy.

WITH THE SAME KNIFE,

Frank Compton Cut His Wife's Thront and

IMPEGIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD SORANTON, P., May 23, -Frank Compton, of West Pittaburg, this morning ent his wife's of West Pittaburg, this morning cut his wife's throat with a butcher knife.

He then killed himself with the same weapou, his dead bedy being afterwards found over that of his wife.

Compton was thirty-five years old.

His wife was twenty-sight.

Marital differences are the supposed cause of the crime.

inspiral to the symme world. I Privature, Pa., May 23.—Charles Clendan-ning, of West Deer Town-hip, Allegheny County, is dead, aged one hundred and one.

SUFFERENCE from hondache of twenty years'